NEW HIGH SCHOOL FURTHER DELAYED

Resolutions For Issuance of Notes for $49,500 Fail to Pass Aldermen.

TAKE SUMMER RECESS

Council Adjourns Until Next October
—Called Meeting of Aldermen Next Saturday.

Indefinite delay in the erection of the new high school building in Alexandria will be the result of the failure of the two boards of City Council to agree on a site for the building and a plan for financing the proposition. At the meeting last night Common Council refused to concur in the action of the Board of Aldermen in passing the report of the joint committee of schools and finance providing $28,000 for the construction of a building on some site other than the one purchased two years ago at the corner of Cameron and West Sts., and adopt an entirely different plan. The Board of Aldermen refused to recede and appointed a conference committee consisting of Messrs. Field and Ogden to confer with a committee composed of Messrs. Harrison and Birrell from Common Council. As Council will not meet again until October 14th, no action can be taken until that time.

The substitute was introduced by Mr. Williams and directs the finance committee to issue $50,000 in ten year notes at 5 per cent. which are to be paid off by an annual appropriation of $5,000 and interest. The proceeds of these notes is appropriated for the following purposes: For new high school building, $35,000; for high school furniture $1,200; for purchase of lot adjoining present site for high school, $3,500; for house for use of Relief Hook and Ladder Co., $10,000, a total of $49,700.

The High School is to be erected upon the site at the corner of Cameron and West street, under the direction of the Finance and School Committee and the city engineer, when the state legislature shall have given the city of Alexandria the right to own and control school property in Alexandria county. The engine house shall be built on the site now owned by the city near the corner of Royal and Prince.

The finance committee is directed to sell at once sufficient notes for the purchase of a lot adjoining the present site of the high school and for the erection of the engine house.

There was but little debate on the substitute all of the members of Council who were present favoring the plan with the exception of Messrs. Burke, Marshall and Spinks. Mr. Burke made a clear statement of his views on the subject. He opposed the erection of the building at Cameron and West streets for the present as he did not see that the city could provide teachers for the high school after the building was erected. He favored spending $2,500 or $3,000 for a small building on South Washington street for the primary classes and the erection of a high school building at some later date.

Mr. Marshall was outspoken in his opposition to the placing of a city school building in Alexandria county. He said that he would vote for the report of the finance and schools committee, appropriating $28,000 for the building to be erected within the city limits. He said that he had voted against the purchase of the lot and would always oppose it.

Mr. Spinks objected to the site and also to the coupling of the school proposition and the appropriation for the truck house, in the same resolution. He voted against the proposition for the school and for the appropriation for the truck house.

Mr. Graham voted against the substitute. There was but little said in favor of the resolution, Messrs. Williams and Brockett making brief statements of the importance of a new school building and the long time the matter had been under consideration by Council.

At the opening of council there was a spirited debate between Mr. Marshall and Mr. Harrison over the adverse report of the light committee on the placing of a gas main on West street between King and Prince. The chairman of the committee said there would be only one user of gas on the square and that the cost to the city would be $300. Mr. Marshall ridiculed the policy of the light committee which he said placed gas main on streets where there were no houses, yet refused to do so in a built up section of the city where the people had been paying taxes for years and had not received any improvements. Here, he said, within half a square of the principal business street of the city, is a citizen who desires gas and cannot obtain it. The report of the committee was sustained by a vote of 12 to 2, Mr. Spinks joining Mr. Marshall in the minority.

Some little discussion was also caused by a resolution introduced by Mr. Birrell giving the fire committee authority to buy and sell horses and this was finally referred to the committee on general laws to ascertain the authority of council to delegate its powers to a committee.

Another resolution in reference to the erection of the new school was the passage of a resolution requesting the delegate from Alexandria to the state legislature to secure the passage of a law granting the city permission to hold property for school purposes in Alexandria county. The employment of an extra man in the fire department at a salary of $70 per month was authorized by both bodies. The new employee is to relieve the paid firemen when sick or on leave and each man now employed will be given one day off in every eight days.

The city engineer was instructed to examine roofs, chimneys and firewalls and cause those in dangerous condition to be repaired. The action was made necessary by the storm of July 8th.

The sum of $100 was appropriated for repairs to the city alms house.

Board of Aldermen.
All the members of the Board of Aldermen save Mr. Summers were present last night. Mr. Field, chairman of the joint committee on fire and finance, reported in favor of the employment of an extra man for service in the fire department at a salary of $70 per month. The report will be found in full in the official proceedings. It was adopted by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Ballenger, of the committee on public property, introduced a resolution, which was adopted, appropriating $100 for repairs to the alms house caused by the damage of the recent storm.

Mr. Ogden, of the committee on streets, submitted a report recommending that the action of the Common Council, some time ago, in ordering the removal of the pump on the north side of Prince street, between Henry and Fayette streets, be concurred in.

Mr. Ogden stated that the committee had conferred with the officials of the Alexandria Water Company for the purpose of making arrangements by which drinking troughs for the use of horses be placed at certain points in the city. He had nothing definite to report, however, but should the troughs to be introduced the city could abolish certain pumps.

Messrs. Hill, Brill and Fitzgerald opposed the removal of the pump, it being alleged that it was a convenience to many persons residing in the neighborhood, some of whom did not have water on their premises. The adoption of the report was urged by Messrs. Ogden and Ballenger.

Those favoring the retention of the old landmark stated that the health officer had pronounced the water suitable for drinking purposes.

Mr. Fitzgerald said if the city was looking for nuisances, they would find some of greater proportions than the pump in the shape of clogged sewer traps and rank growths of vegetation here and there.

The board refused to concur in the recommendation of the committee by a vote of 5 to 2, and the matter was recommitted to the committee on streets to consider a proposition to make repairs to the pump.

The aldermen refused to recede from their action on the school site and concur in that of the Common Council and asked for a conference committee, appointing Messrs. Ogden and Field on the part of the Aldermen.

Both boards passed a resolution providing that the next regular meeting of Council be held on the second

NAMING OF CLAYTON WILL HELP CARLIN

Alexandria Representative in Congress Will be Advanced.

RANKS ON JUDICIARY.

Will be the Next Member to Chairman on One of the Most Powerful House Committees.

Congressman Charles C. Carlin, of Alexandria, representative of the eighth congressional district, will be the ranking member of the powerful judiciary committee of the House of Representatives on account of the appointment of Congressman Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, yesterday as senator from that state by Governor O'Neal, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Joseph H. Johnston.

Following the precedent established in the house Edwin Y. Webb, of North Carolina, who is the present ranking member of the committee, will succeed Mr. Clayton as chairman, thus allowing Mr. Carlin to move up a peg. As ranking member of the committee Mr. Carlin will be sub-chairman of the most important investigations conducted by the government. The judiciary committee has always been one of the most important committees in Congress but in late years, on account of the trust investigations, it has grown in power and prestige until now it is regarded as second only to the ways and means committee.

Mr. Carlin on account of his recognized legal ability, was placed in the committee three years ago by Speaker Cannon and has gradually made his way to the top. His advancement makes Virginia even more strongly entrenched in the house of representatives. Henry D. Flood, is chairman of the Foreign Affairs; Carter Glass, chairman of Currency and Banking; William A. Jones, of Insular Affairs, and James Hay, of Military Affairs.

There will be some question of Mr. Clayton's right to the senatorship on account of the new constitutional enactment providing for the direct election of senators. It is said that the majority of the senators who have been studying the question hold the view that he can have no power to appoint unless the Legislature has taken action since the proclamation of the constitutional amendment specifically giving him that power.

It was the opinion of leading Republican members of the Judiciary Committee last night that when Senator Clayton presents himself for the oath of office it will be administered to him without question, and his credentials will be referred to the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections to investigate and report upon. This will give Senator Clayton the right to vote on the tariff bill, and any vote he may cast will not affect the validity of legislation, even in cases where his vote may be decisive.

Japan Will Not Receive Diaz.
Tokyo, Aug. 13.—It was announced today that the Japanese government will not receive Gen. Felix Diaz, a leader of the Mexican revolution, which overthrew Madero. General Diaz is now on his way to Japan from San Francisco.

Mr. J. F. Carlin and family leave tonight for Niagara Falls in their Studebaker car, by way of Gettysburg, Harrisburg, Elmira, and Buffalo, returning in about three weeks by another route, touring the Eastern States.

Tuesday in October.

The Aldermen, after concurring in the action of the lower board on some papers which had been sent in, adjourned to meet again next Saturday, at 12 o'clock to act on certain ordinances for improvements in the northwestern section of the city.

100 electric trains pass Mt. Ida every day. It is conveniently located between Alexandria and Washington, convenient to both. You will have an opportunity to purchase a lot there next Monday at your own price.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Official dispatches announce that a camel corps of British native troops have been ambushed by a force of 2,000 Dervishes near Burao, Arabia. The British killed and wounded include two officers and about sixty men. Many thousand followers of Mad Mullah are on the war path.

Yesterday after shooting his sister-in-law, Miss Eleanor Cole, 33 years old, daughter of the chief assessor of the appeal tax court, in Baltimore, Julian Edmund, 37 years old, sent a bullet into his own body. Miss Cole died several hours later, and Edmund is said to be in a critical condition. Members of Edmund's family allege that the tragedy was an accident so far as the shooting of Miss Cole is concerned. They claim that after he had seen what had been done, Edmund turned the weapon on himself.

A fatal duel between a father and son, named Blanchard, living near Aubusson, France, began in rivalry for the heart of a pretty farmhand. The son, Jean Lelong, was jealous of his father, who had won the girl's affection, so the two men agreed to fight. Six revolver shots were exchanged, without result. They resumed the fight with kitchen knives, while the girl watched the duel without interfering. The father received terrible wounds, dying soon afterward.

Serious disorders broke out yesterday in Rome, when strikers smashed lamp posts, broke shop windows, and attacked street cars in the outlying districts. Several persons were wounded in the fighting and 500 were arrested. Among those arrested was a Neapolitan anarchist named Caccozza, who was disguised as a priest and was about to enter the chamber of deputies to make a demonstration against Premier Giolitti.

A strange case was presented in the common pleas court in Cincinnati yesterday when Judge Cushing committed to Longview Asylum for the Insane Dr. William R. Dabney, whose residence is given as Marietta, Ohio. Dr. Dabney first showed signs of insanity last fall while performing a surgical operation in a hospital at Marietta, when he suddenly began slashing wildly with his operating knife, and although assistants tried to restrain him, his patient was killed.

Estill Potter, 13-year-old daughter of Newton Potter, of Lexington, Mo., was killed yesterday by a negro employed at the Potter farm after he had attacked the child. The negro cut the girl's throat and fled, pursued by armed citizens.

Mrs. Eugene McCarthy, 55 years old, of West Rutland, Vt., has confessed according to the police, that she had killed her sister, Miss Alice Kerrigan, five years her junior, who had been missing since last Friday. The police found the body of Miss Kerrigan, with a bullet hole through the head, buried in the cellar. Beyond stating that there had been a slight argument between them, Mrs. McCarthy could give the officials no reason for her act, according to the police.

Three persons were burned to death and a fourth, a girl of 6, was fatally injured in Columbus, Ohio, last night when a large automobile crashed through the railing of a bridge and fell 5 feet, to the bank of a creek at the outskirts of the city.

W. G. Martin, 35 years old, proprietor of a millinery store at Toronto, Canada, was found murdered last night in a room of an uptown apartment house in New York. The body lay on a bed with both hands tied behind the back, and with a piece of gas tubing and a gag in the mouth. Two deep stab wounds and a deep gash were on the head. Every pocket in the dead man's clothing was turned inside out.

A band of 52 Industrial Workers of the World was surrounded by a sheriff's posse and citizens at Minot, N. D., last night and marched 9 miles out of town with instructions not to return.

Henry D. Clayton, at present serving as Representative for the Third Congressional district of Alabama, was yesterday appointed by Governor O'Neal to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Joseph P. Johnston.

GOVERNOR SULZER IMPEACHED TODAY

"High Crimes and Misdemeanors" Charged by Legislature.

79 FOR, 45 AGAINST.

Three Votes More Than Required Majority—Alleged Confession of Wife of Executive.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 13.—With three votes more than the required majority, Gov. William Sulzer early today was impeached by the assembly for alleged "high crimes and misdemeanors" in connection with his campaign fund.

After an all-night session spent by the majority in filibustering until Tammany absentees could arrive, the vote was taken at 5:16 a. m., resulting 79 for impeachment to 45 against.

The first impeachment of a governor of New York state came close on the heels of the most sensational feature in the Sulzer-Murphy war, when Mrs. Sulzer told certain senators that she was responsible for the Sulzer stock market deals and that the governor knew nothing about it. She sought to shoulder all the blame.

Throughout the long night, while tired assemblymen moved in their seats, the Tammany leaders, knowing that they still lacked a few votes of the 76 necessary to put through the Levy impeachment resolution, kept up a constant fire of speechmaking and debate in order to prevent a recess.

It was 2:30 a. m. after Aaron J. Levy and other Tammany men had talked for hours, ostensibly defending the resolution, but in reality filibustering to await the arrival of absentees that Minority leader Harold J. Hinman sprung the real sensation of Governor Sulzer's defense. He told the assembly that Mrs. Sulzer had assumed the responsibility of the financial transactions and stock market speculation charged against Sulzer in the Frawley committee's report, and was at that moment preparing a formal statement for submission to the Legislature.

Hinman said he was not certain just what Mrs. Sulzer's statement would be, explaining that he had the facts second hand from Senator Abraham J. Palmer, of Kingston, to whom "the Governor's lady" made her alleged confession.

Hinman's announcement threw the assembly into an uproar. Instantly a dozen men were on their feet. The sleepy ones waked up and those who had gone to corridors and committee rooms hurried in, thinking that the crucial vote had been precipitated prematurely. Meanwhile Senator Palmer corroborated Hinman's story and several other senators admitted they had heard such a report.

In the midst of the excitement Hinman requested that the assembly adjourn until it could hear and consider the statement of Mrs. Sulzer. The motion was voted down 73 to 49, but the vote was a close call for Tammany, showing that the organization still lacked three votes of the number necessary to impeach.

Mrs. Sulzer had made no formal statement early today, and all that was known to her alleged connection with the stock dealing charged against Sulzer came from Palmer and the others who said they had heard it. It was said that Mrs. Sulzer, in tears, made her confession to Palmer, but the Ulster Senator refused to admit this.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

In a suit for $15,000 damages instituted yesterday in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia against the Southern Railway Company, Amelie Garet alleges that on April 6, 1913, she sustained internal injuries while trying to board one of the company's trains at Sideburn, Va. She alleges that the accident was the result of the step being too high, and adds that her injuries are permanent.

MADE ANOTHER FLIGHT.

Aviator Makes Aerial Trip Yesterday in the Rain.

C. Murvin Wood yesterday made a flight of sixteen minutes in his Moisant monoplane, the Bluebird, in spite of the rain. During part of his flight, Mr. Wood was above the clouds. He started from the parade ground at Fort Myer, in a drizzling rain, shortly before 6 o'clock. It required only six seconds for him to leave the ground, and his machine climbed so fast that it was unnecessary for him to circle the field to gain altitude.

Residents along the Potomac again were favored by Mr. Wood. He started from Fort Myer for the river, and continued along its course for several miles before he turned. As he reached the parade ground the machine was almost obscured by clouds. From 3,500 feet Mr. Wood descended in a sharp vulpine towards the ground. The monoplane was directed away from the fort, and watchers who had not seen his former flights thought that he had made a forced landing. He disappeared below the skyline, but again flew into sight, this time at an altitude of about 500 feet. During the sixteen minutes of his flight, Mr. Wood maintained nearly seventy miles an hour. He covered about twenty-two miles.

When the Bluebird had been taken into the riding hall Mr. Wood explained his sudden descent. He said that he had risen above the level of the lower clouds and had been enveloped for several minutes in a mist so heavy that his goggles had been clouded. Then he rose to a level at which, while he could see clouds both above and below, the atmosphere was clear, and the temperature was probably fifteen degrees colder than on the ground.

ASSUMES RESPONSIBILITY.

Mrs. Sulzer, it is Said, Signed Checks—Declares Husband Innocent.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 13.—The capitol was startled late last evening when a report was circulated through the Senate and assembly chambers that Mrs. William Sulzer stands ready to come forward and assume full responsibility for the governor's checking accounts, which are the basis for the impeachment charges concerning campaign funds with Wall Street speculation.

Mrs. Sulzer is reported to have told Senator Palmer that she had signed checks without the governor's knowledge, and that these checks had come to light in the recent Frawley committee inquiry. She is reported further to have told the lawmakers that her husband was innocent of the blame attached to him in the reports to the assembly.

The governor was silent regarding the report and referred inquirers to Senator Palmer, saying that the senator could speak on the subject. Mrs. Sulzer is said to have had a partial collapse within the last few hours.

It is reported that two days ago a 3,000-word statement was prepared, explaining financial transactions, and that Mrs. Sulzer's name had figured in this. The statement was suppressed.

All property between Alexandria and Washington must increase in value. Mt. Ida offers great opportunities for the investor or home seeker. Attend the auction sale of lots next Monday 10:30 a. m.

Army Deserter Who Victimized Alexandria Merchants Arrested.

ENLISTED AS COOK.

Found at Camp Ordway, Where he Had Joined District Militia—Turned Over to U. S. Authorities.

Walter C. Cameron, who last April victimized a number of Alexandria merchants by having them cash checks of the commissary department of Ft. Hunt, of which he was clerk, has been arrested at Camp Ordway, Bolivar Heights, West Virginia, where he had enlisted as a cook in the District of Columbia militia now in camp at that place.

Cameron was formerly well known in this city. His connection with Ft. Hunt required him to purchase considerable supplies here and hardly a day passed but that he came to Alexandria. He was well liked by those with whom he came in contact and it was a great surprise to all who knew him to learn of his desertion from the army and the forging of checks which were issued by the commissary department.

Cameron was arrested as a result of his identity being disclosed by a brother-in-law. He had enlisted as a cook in the Second Regiment under the name of Wm. Metcalf.

Lawrence A. Quinn, a brother-in-law, a member of Company D, First Regiment, recognized Cameron last Sunday, and immediately informed his superior officers, who lost no time in communicating with the War Department at Washington.

In response to the notification, Lieutenant Strong, of the Washington Barracks, accompanied by a sergeant, reached Camp Ordway yesterday afternoon and placed the alleged deserter under arrest. He was locked up in the Second Regiment guard house, but later was conveyed in an automobile to Harper's Ferry, from whence the Washington officers and their prisoner started for the capital.

Cameron, who is a salesman, and who lives at 3642 M Street, northwest, Washington, enlisted in the army at Fort Hunt, during July, 1910. He deserted last April, about two months before his enlistment expired. At the same time he deserted, his wife and little child now living with Mrs. Cameron's relatives at Murphy Station near Fort Myer, Va. Quinn says that the wife is desirous of having her husband severely punished, in view of his treatment of the family. Mrs. Cameron also charges her husband with forging checks on the canteen at Fort Hunt.

Upon entering the District National Guards, Cameron presented an honorable discharge from the Third Field Artillery, Battery D.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

NARROW ESCAPE.

His Life by Clinging to Iron Rods.

Richmond, Aug. 13.—When Frank Underwood, 45 years old, realized he had been knocked down and swept over a locomotive yesterday, he experienced a remarkable presence of mind, clinging up he gripped two rods that projected conveniently above his head and held on for dear life.

The man was carried along in this manner for nearly a block. Then the engine was stopped and he was dragged forth.

At the Grace hospital doctors said Underwood would survive his injuries. He has two fractured ribs, his left arm is fractured and he was severely bruised and cut. Careful examination showed that he had sustained injury to the skull or internal organs. His escape from fatal injury is considered remarkable.

Underwood was crossing the tracks Sixth and Byrd streets about 8:30 o'clock when he was struck by a Chesapeake & Ohio locomotive.

After being rescued from beneath the engine Underwood was carried to a building by the side of the tracks and the ambulance from the hospital summoned.

THROAT CUT; MAN LIVES.

Greenwalt Was Slashed by Tramp Near Charlestown, W. Va.

Winchester, Va., Aug. 13.—In spite of the fact that his throat was cut from ear to ear and his windpipe lacerated in a battle with knives, Harry Greenwalt, alias "The Kid," has a good chance of recovering in the Charlestown (W. Va.), hospital.

Greenwalt, who is a man with a checkered career, was slashed a few days ago by a tramp in the suburbs of Charlestown. The man who cut him is also charged with the murder of another, a one-legged man, who has been identified as "Virginia" Hicks.

Chief of Police Smith, of Charlestown, has been informed that a stranger whose description tallies with that given by Greenwalt of his assailant has been in the vicinity of Front Royal and Riverton, Va., and efforts are being made to locate him.

Manassas to Issue $75,000 Bonds.

Manassas, Va., Aug. 13.—The election held in Manassas yesterday for the purpose of voting on a bond issue of $75,000 to install a system of water, lights and sewerage, resulted in a victory in favor of the bond issue by a vote of 102 to 38. Although the majority was larger than expected, the result was not in doubt. When the result was known it was celebrated with fire works and bonfires.

To Unveil Monument.

King William Courthouse, Va., Aug. 13.—Congressman Andrew Jackson Montague will be the orator here August 27th, when the Confederate monument on the public square is formally unveiled for the admiration of the survivors of the "lost cause." Other speakers are expected to be on hand. The day will be made memorable by the large gathering, the fine speeches and the good dinner which will be spread for benefit of the visitors. It is expected that the largest crowd in the history of the county will be on hand on this occasion.

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

Took Laudanum in His Beer to End Life.

Richmond, Aug. 13.—After kissing his little daughter goodbye W. B. Snead, of 513 West Eleventh street, on the Southside, yesterday morning poured eight ounces of laudanum into a pitcher of beer and swallowed it at a gulp. Members of his family who realized what he had done at once sent for the ambulance, but it was with the greatest difficulty that Ambulance Surgeon Torregrosa saved the man's life.

"Take away your pumps and emetics," Snead told them. "I have troubles enough! I want to die! Let me alone!"

But the man was hurried to the City Hospital, where the proper treatment was administered. Snead is very weak, but will be entirely well, the doctors say, in a few days.

Snead, according to the hospital records, tried to kill himself by taking laudanum on July 12th.

Asked to Resign.

Norfolk, Aug. 13.—The Virginia Beach Town Council last night adopted a resolution calling upon the School Board to resign. The cause of this action was the insistence of two members of the board to have Mrs. Carl Willett as principal of the Virginia Beach public school for the coming year. The School Board is composed of Herman Drinkwater, E. D. Ferebee and G. C. Sorey.

PAINTERS' EXPERIENCE.

Attacked by a Swarm of Yellow Jackets on the Dome of the Capitol of Michigan.

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 13.—Clinging desperately with one hand to a slender steel rod, and battling with the other against a swarm of yellow jackets, DeForest N. Tickner, of this city, narrowly escaped death a day or two ago when he disturbed the neck of the insects in the dome of the State Capitol, 75 feet in the air.

Tickner was engaged to paint the dome. After climbing to the top of the spiral stairway he stepped through a little window and started to scale the outside of the steel shell. As he ascended, hundreds of yellow jackets suddenly swarmed out of a crevice and attacked him. Although stung repeatedly and suffering intense pain the painter fought his way back to the window and safety.

STOOL STAYS KILLING HORNS.

Dairyman Wedged in Between Bull's Deadly Weapons.

Beaver, Pa., Aug. 13.—Anthony Rasmussen, a prosperous dairyman near Glade Run, was fatally gored by a Holstein bull Monday morning. Rasmussen, with the aid of a milking stool, which he managed to wedge between the animal's horns during their desperate battle, was able to frustrate the bull's efforts to gore him to death on the spot.

ROW AT CAMP MEETING.

Parsonburg Church Gathering in a Panic.

Salisbury, Md., Aug. 13.—The campmeeting which is being held at Parsonburg, about five miles from Salisbury, under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was thrown into a panic Monday night by a cutting and dynamiting affray. Two men were seriously injured, one of them now lying in a critical condition at Peninsula General Hospital in this city suffering from a severe laceration with a razor, and the other suffering from a fractured skull, the result of the use of brass knuckles. In addition to this, Robert Bishop, was knocked unconscious by the dynamite, and will probably be rendered permanently deaf.

Shortly after the cutting, there were two tremendous reports, and it was found that dynamite had been placed under the church building, located about 50 yards from the camp grounds.

DEATH OF ISAAC HIRSCH.

Aged Merchant of Fredericksburg Passes Away.

Fredericksburg, Va., Aug. 13.—Isaac Hirsch, 74 years old, Fredericksburg's oldest dry goods merchant, died at his home here yesterday after a brief illness. Mr. Hirsch commenced business here soon after the civil war and continued at the same stand until his death.

Mr. Hirsch at one time was a member of the City Council, had been for years a member of the City School Board and was president of that body at the time of his death. He was a Confederate veteran, a Mason, being past master of Lodge No. 4 and past High Priest of Chapter No. 23 Royal Arch Masons. He was a native of Germany and came to this country in 1852.

He is survived by his widow and one son, Councilman Maurice Hirsch; one brother, Davis Hirsch, five sisters, Mrs. B. Goldsmith and Mrs. H. Kaufman, of this city; Mrs. L. M. Adler and Mrs. B. Sinsheimer, of Washington, and Mrs. J. S. Fox, of Baltimore. The body will be taken to Baltimore Thursday morning for burial. Services will be conducted by Rabbi Abram Simons, of Washington.

Girl Defends Herself.

Richmond, Aug. 13.—Incensed at the testimony given by Miss Edna Wright, special investigator, before the State Board of Charities and Corrections in its probe into affairs at the Virginia Home and Industrial School for Girls at Bon Air, a crowd of six or seven inmates at that institution yesterday morning made a bodily attack upon her. With unusual pluck, Miss Wright drew a revolver from her handbag to defend herself, but aid came to her in a few minutes, and the mutinous girls were ordered to their quarters. Each of them had blackened their faces, and wore strips of cloths about their heads to avoid recognition. During the excitement an officer drew his pistol.

Miss Wright, who has been engaged in making mental tests of the inmates, resumed her work of examination and concluded it. However, she kept the revolver in her lap while the last of the girls was being examined.

BAY GELDING WINS.

The Virginian Triumphs Over Alarm at Empire Park.

New York, Aug. 13.—The blue ribbon of the heavyweight qualified hunter class was awarded at Empire park yesterday afternoon to S. D. Riddle's bay gelding, "The Virginian," heavy-weight champion last season at Madison Square Garden and other shows. Edward McLean's $10,000 jumper, Alarm, that all his admirers expected to see win, received the red ribbon. The defeat for first honors of the gigantic brown gelding, whose weight is said to be 1,400 pounds caused a stir among horsemen, who seemed to be divided in opinion as to the justice of the decision. W. A. McGibbon, one of the best known saddle horse experts in the country, and in his younger days a rider of jumpers at the national horse show, was the sole judge in this class. He said, after coming out of the ring, that he believed the bay horse would carry his rider farther, faster, and safer than the brown, whose way of bending his neck and going at his fences did not altogether please Mr. McGibbon.

Slain After a Funeral.

Macon, Ga., Aug. 13.—T. M. Howard, a negro preacher, was killed instantly and three other negroes were seriously injured in a shooting melee which took place in front of a negro Methodist Church, at Round Oak, fifteen miles north of Macon. The shooting occurred while the crowd of negroes were returning to the church after burying the body of Mattie Farmer, a negro woman.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

AFTER POTOMAC RIVER TRADE.

The Washington Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants' Association of that city have at last awakened to the fact that the trade of the Potomac river and its tributaries should come in this direction, and not be carried to Baltimore. This movement should not only extend to the Potomac river landings, but there is no good reason why the trade of the Rappahannock and York rivers should go to Baltimore with Alexandria and Washington much nearer.

Incidentally, should the Capital City succeed in attracting the attention of persons residing on the Potomac, Wicomico, Yeocomo and Coan rivers, Alexandria will benefit more or less as all the river steamers bring passengers and freight to this port.

Years ago the bulk of the river trade came to Alexandria, not only by steamers but by hundreds of sailing craft. At that time Union street and the Strand were bristling with activity. At this time, however, the cream of the commerce is carried to Baltimore by steamers and boats departing from and arriving at Alexandria and Washington do not call at landings where the bulk of the river trade is carried on.

Attempts have at times been made to inaugurate a line of steamers between Washington, Alexandria and Fredericksburg, the last boat running on that line having been the old Norfolk steamer Lady of the Lake in the early eighties. The enterprise, for some reason, was short-lived.

While the claim of Maryland for the trade on the eastern side of the river may not be questioned, as suggested above, there is no good reason why Westmoreland and Northumberland counties should be monopolized by the monumental city, as has been the case for many years.

The trip from Rappahannock, Coan or Yeocomo can be made to Alexandria and Washington in shorter time than to Baltimore.

Some time ago it was charged that Alexandria and Washington were being discriminated against by the company operating the Baltimore steamers.

Four bystanders were shot seriously and three others less seriously wounded in a riot last night at Salt Lake City, Utah, when a special policeman waved an American flag in the face of a W. W. orator. The shooting was done by members of the I. W. W.

PRETTY BATHERS FLIGHT.

Leaves Beach in a Barrel, a Raincoat and Stockings.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Modern fashions have ruled out petticoats and this is the reason May Leonard, a pretty bather, started home from Clarendon Beach yesterday evening attired jauntily in a raincoat, a cracker barrel and a pair of stockings. She had rented a bathing suit for the afternoon swim and the rules of the beach required that she should surrender it as there were claimants in waiting.

All this came about because some miscreant stole May's clothing from a locker, not even a stray hairpin or a piece of baby ribbon was left. When she came in from the water and discovered her loss she first proposed going home in the bathing suit and a raincoat, which a sympathetic man on the beach offered to loan for the occasion. The authorities refused, however, saying it was against the rules to permit a suit to be taken and that others were in line awaiting its use.

They suggested that Miss Leonard lock herself in the dressing room and send home for clothing. Then she appealed to several women for a petticoat, but petticoats are not being worn this season.

The stockings she was wearing and the beach slippers were her own, so the sympathetic man foraged around and found the cracker barrel, which he left with the raincoat at the door of her dressing room.

Arrayed in the barrel, neatly draped with the rain coat and surrounded by a cordon of indignant lady bathers, Miss Leonard proceeded a couple of blocks up the beach until she could make a hasty dash into a closed taxicab which had been ordered by telephone by the sympathetic man, who accepted her profuse thanks as he started her homeward and then carried the barrel back to the beach, after directing the taxi driver to bring back his rain coat after the girl in distress had finished with it.

TRUTH TRIUMPHS.

Alexandria Citizens Testify For the Public Benefit.

A truthful statement of an Alexandria citizen, given in his own words, should convince the most skeptical about the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. If you suffer from backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, urinary disorders or any form of kidney illness, use a tested kidney medicine.

An Alexandria citizen tells of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Could you demand more convincing proof of merit?

Mrs. Martha L. Byrne, 209 Wilkes St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I never fail to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills after all they have done for me, and you may continue using the endorsement I gave some years ago. I take this remedy every once in a while and it keeps me in good health. I was suffering severely from backache. My kidneys were badly disordered and I felt all run down. I was helped so much by the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills that I kept on taking them until I was well."

RAID "LOVE DOCTOR."

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 13.—When J. D. Melber, aged 44 was arrested yesterday in his apartment at 311 Forty-fourth street, his rooms were found strewn with letters from girls and women pleading with him to restore lost sweethearts and husbands. The police say he had conducted a systematic practice as a "love doctor."

It was reported to the police that a young woman spent the hours from nine until midnight last night in his apartments and that five young women have been hypnotized and mistreated by him in his quarters. He charged 50 cents for each "love treatment."

Two girls who are to appear again at him at a hearing today told an older woman about their experiences. She went to Melber's apartment, and alleges that he attempted to hypnotize and attack her, and that when she was about to hurl a handful of pepper into his face he promised to leave town. He did not leave and information was made against him.

An incense having a peculiar odor was found in the rooms. It is said to contain a drug which assisted his hypnotic operations.

It being understood and ordered by the City Council, that the employment of this extra man is for the following purpose: he is to serve in the place of any engineer or driver, when such person takes his annual leave or is sick, or for any other reason is absent from duty and is to relieve each paid member of the Fire Department one day in every eight days. Owes Life to This

Consumption Remedy

It is beyond human power to perform miracles. The makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Consumption, do not claim that it will restore every one to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified it saved their lives, that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should stop the night sweats, reduce fever, promote appetite and in very many cases, prolong life. Read what it accomplished in this case:

Catherine Ave. and Ascut Place, Queen's Court, L. I. "Gentlemen: In the year 1901 I was taken with a heavy cold and a nasty cough and went to several doctors, including a specialist. Their medicines failed. I then went to the Catskills, but the cough still kept up. I stayed there a year and then went on a farm near Jersey City, a very sick man.

"My brother then recommended Eckman's Alternative to me very highly. At first I would not consent to use it, owing to the fact that I had taken so many medicines without being helped in any way, but finally I consented. It is now nearly two years since I first took it. I am now cured and I dare say that I would have been buried long ago if it had not been for Eckman's Alternative. I wish to thank you for the goodness to me. Wherever I go I highly recommend the Alternative as I owe my life to it."

(Signed Affidavit) J. O. J. TROESCHER, Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upholding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recovery, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.
